Others ways to support the CSO

Consider the endowment of a principal chair or guest artist. For more information on endowing a chair or artist, please contact the CSO office.

Estate planning helps the CSO to continue to provide a quality music experience to the people of Carmel and surrounding areas. There are many different avenues for planned giving, from insurance policies, gifts in wills and other estate instruments. You should always consult your attorney or financial advisor in determining the best vehicles for your estate planning.
